

Where is My Home?

Cumbria Amphibian and Reptile Habitat Quiz

Cumbria Amphibian and Reptile Group

Education Outreach Coordinator:

Ashleigh Toomey

Email: edoutreach.cumbria.arg@gmail.com

Frogs and Toads

1 Common toad

2 Common frog

3 Natterjack toad

HINT: Amphibians are found in more than one habitat as they are aquatic and terrestrial.

1 point for every correct answer.

All photographers are credited in the photos used*

Lizards

4 Common lizard

5 Sand lizard

6 Slow worm

HINT: Most lizards are found in more than one habitat and like to be in areas that are warm!

1 point for every correct answer.

All photographers are credited in the photos used*

Newts

7 Smooth newt

8 Great crested newt

9 Palmate newt

HINT: Newts are found in more than one habitat as they are aquatic and terrestrial and don't like fish!

1 point for every correct answer.

All photographers are credited in the photos used*

Snakes

Guy Broome

Guy Broome

ARC Trust

10 Grass snake

11 Adder

12 Smooth snake

HINT: Most snakes are found in more than one habitat and like to be in areas that are warm and have hiding potential!

1 point for every correct answer.

All photographers are credited in the photos used*

ANSWERS

Frogs and Toads

1 Common toad

Ponds, reservoirs,
fish ponds, woodland
grassland, gardens

2 Common frog

Ponds, meadow, woodland, near lakes
and canals

3 Natterjack toad

Sand dunes, heathland and
moorland, coastal habitat

All photographers are credited in the photos used*

Lizards

4 Common lizard

Heathland, moorland,
dry stone walls,
embankments and sea
cliffs

5 Sand lizard

Heathland, sand dunes and open land that gets lots of sunshine

6 Slow worm

Heathland, grassland, woodlands, gardens
and allotments

All photographers are credited in the photos used*

Newts

7 Smooth newt

Garden ponds, tarns, woodland, wet
heathland, bogs,
marshes

8 Great crested newt

Ponds, tarns,
woodland, scrub,
grassland, farmland

9 Palmate newt

Shallow ponds on heathland and
moorland bogs

All photographers are credited in the photos used*

Snakes

10 Grass snake

Garden ponds,
gardens, lakes,
rivers, grassland,
open woodland

11 Adder

Heathland, moorland,
woodland edges

12 Smooth snake

Heathlands, dry slopes and humid wet
heath areas

All photographers are credited in the photos used*