

The cockroaches of Jersey

Small, native cockroach species (Ectobius spp.) which may be found on the underside of artificial refugia during Reptilewatch JE surveys

Tawny cockroach

Ectobius pallidus

Photo: Tim Ransom

Nymph

Size: 8–9.5 mm long

Appearance: Golden-yellow/brown all over. Females may have dark brown on the underside of the abdomen.

Wings: Both sexes have full wings.

Photo: Tim Ransom

Adult female

Lesser cockroach

Ectobius panzeri

Adult female

Photo: Tim Ransom

Adult male

Photo: Tim Ransom

Size: 5–8 mm long

Appearance: Darkish brown with a speckled pattern on the pronotum ('shield') of both sexes and on the abdomen (females only).

Wings: Males are fully winged whereas females are short-winged, with the wings covering up to 50% of the abdomen.

Reptilewatch...JE

